If you drop it, you'll break my toe,' groaned Asma. She glanced at her sister, Reem. They were standing at the top of the stairs with a large yellow sofa between them. 'Stop complaining, Asma.' Reem rolled her eyes. 1 Mum said if we turn the sofa on its side, it will be so much easier to get it through the door.'

A few minutes later, Asma and Reem put the sofa down against the wall of the living room. They sat down and started to laugh. 'That wasn't so bad, was it?' grinned Asma. 'Hang on, what's this thing here? It feels like there's something inside it!' said Reem. Asma and Reem unzipped the cushion and to their surprise, they found a black leather handbag. 'What do you think is inside it?' whispered Asma, staring at the bag. Reem looked at her. 'There's only one way to find on the out.' Neither girl could believe their eyes when they spread the contents of the handbag table. 2 They gazed in disbelief at what they had found. There was a purse and a collection of jewellery: three diamond rings, five pearl necklaces of different sizes, several pairs of earrings and some bracelets made of gold and silver. 'This jewellery is beautiful, isn't it?' sighed Reem. 'And look, there's 5,000 JD in here. Obviously, we'll have to give it back to the rightful owner.' Asma shook her head. 'But we don't know whose money it is,' she said. 'If we knew who it belonged to, we could give it back to them but we don't know!' She raised an eyebrow. 'Anyway, why would an honest person put all this money and jewellery into a handbag inside a sofa?
